

TEXAS BANDMASTERS ASSOCIATION

Over 70 Years of Service!

YOU are invited to attend the Texas Bandmasters Annual Convention/Clinic this summer on Thursday July 26 through Saturday July 28. You can pre-register for $25 by printing the registration form and sending payment to the TBA office OR you can register onsite at the convention.

You will be able to attend all TBA clinics and concerts for your $25 fee. But this year we have 2 special sessions and a reception planned especially for you. They are:

Thursday, July 26: 3:00 PM - 4:00 PM

Student Teaching IS Your First Job: Building Your Professional Reputation While Still in College Room: CC 004 • Clinician: Frank Troyka

The student teaching assignment is intended to provide practical experience and help launch the college student into a successful first year in the classroom. However, he or she is often unprepared to “flip the switch” from identifying as a student to identifying as the teacher. This presentation will offer specific, real-life case studies to illustrate both successful and unsuccessful student teaching scenarios so the young teacher may build a solid, attractive reputation.

Thursday, July 26: 4:30 PM - 5:30 PM

The College Student as a Private Teacher Room: CC 004 • Clinician: Frank Troyka

Teaching private lessons as a college student is an excellent way to gain practical experience long before the actual student teaching assignment. Unfortunately, most college students are unprepared to make the most of this opportunity not just for themselves, but for their private students, too. This presentation will help the young private teacher understand better how to prepare, organize, and develop a successful private studio and avoid the failure paths that are easily and commonly followed.

Thursday, July 26: 5:45 PM - 6:30 PM

TBA Reception Room: LDR (Lonesome Dove Room)

TBA invites Young Band Directors of Texas, TBA Academy Members, and TBA College Students to a meet and greet reception.

The Texas Bandmasters Association thanks the following company for sponsoring our pre-registration:
