

Suggestions from Paula Corley

I read your post in the Texas Band Directors forum on Facebook about needing materials and instruction for beginners. I am happy to share the link to a free app that has free instruction videos from all over the world. I recorded quite a few specifically targeted at beginners. But there are many at all levels and for a lot of different instruments.

Here is the link to the app since Buffet Crampon owns all these videos:

<http://www.playwind.com/>

If you scroll to the bottom, there is a demo from me. Access is free but everyone would need to create an account to view them all.

Here is a link for additional clarinet instruction:

<https://www.clarinetcity.com/articles-practice-materials>

Thanks for all you do to keep the standards high in our profession. I have a deep appreciation for what we have in Texas.

Best regards,

Paula Corley